Stories by role

Student:

Student should be able to login the website.

Student can need to select the course to get the codeword.

Instructor:

Instructor should be able to login the website.

Instructor can add new course and upload excel sheet with student details (student ID's, names and course ID) for each course.

Instructor can delete the existing course for students if needed.

Admin:

Admin should be able to login the website.

Admin can grant access to student and instructor.

Admin can approve any changes made by the instructor.